3 Questions With ... Philanthropist Rashida George

Community Advocate

The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and giving of our donors and friends throughout Black Philanthropy Month

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

My giving of my time and resources to community is deeply rooted from my childhood. I was raised in Antigua and watched my grandparents give to those in the community who were in need. They looked out for neighbors and answered calls for support whenever requested. I am so appreciative of those experiences of love, kindness and a strong sense of community, it was a normal, everyday action.

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

As a teenager, I volunteered with youth organizations. This was my ways of supporting others who were lesser resourced. I later volunteered as a camp counselor which changed my life.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

Find a cause, think about what you deeply care about. Everyone has SOMETHING to give. It doesn't always have to be financial. We also have family, friends and communities with whom we are connected, talk with them, encourage them to join you.
